Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the LORD God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

℣. The Word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now pro-claim, “His mercy endureth for ever.”
- 14 (2nd half) The LORD is my strength and my song, and he hath become my sal-vation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:
- 16 “The right hand of the LORD hath triumphed! the right hand of the LORD is ex-alted!
the right hand of the LORD hath triumphed!”
- 17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.
- 18 The LORD hath punished me sorely, but he did not hand me over to death.
- 19 Open for me the gates of righteousness; I will enter them; I will offer thanks unto the LORD.
- 20 “This is the gate of the LORD; he who is righteous may enter.”
- 21 I will give thanks to thee, for thou hast answered me, and hast become my sal-vation.
- 22 The same stone which the builders re-jected hath become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the LORD’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 On this day the LORD hath acted; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

The Epistle

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

The Gospel

Mark 16:1-8

V. The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Mark.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

R. Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Sermon

Fr. Whitmire

¶ Please stand.

Renewal of Baptismal Vows

Through the Paschal mystery, dearly beloved, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, now that our Lenten observance is ended, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy Catholic Church.

V. Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

R. I do.

℣. Do you believe in God the Father?

℟. I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

℣. Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the son of God?

℟. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord;

who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,

born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, dead, and buried.

He descended into Hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven,

and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From thence he shall come to judge

both the quick and the dead.

℣. Do you believe in God the Holy Ghost?

℟. I believe in the Holy Ghost,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the ✠ resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting.

℣. Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers?

℟. I will, by God's help.

℣. Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever thou dost fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

℟. I will, by God's help.

℣. Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

℟. I will, by God's help.

℣. Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

℟. I will, by God's help.

℣. Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every person?

℟. I will, by God's help.

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hast given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Response: Lord, have mercy.

Final Response: To thee, O Lord, our God.

¶ Please kneel, as you are able, or remain standing.

The Confession and Absolution

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved thee with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

℞. We lift them up unto the Lord.

¶. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

℞. It is meet and right so to do.

The Preface

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, to glorify thee, O Father, and to give thanks unto thee, for thou alone art God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before all time and for ever. Fountain of life and Source of all goodness, thou hast made all things and didst fill them with thy blessing, creating them to rejoice in the splendor of thy radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before thee to serve thee night and day; and, beholding the glory of thy presence, they offer thee unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we praise thee, and glorify thy Name, saying,

The Canon of the Mass

We acclaim thee, holy Lord, glorious in power, whose mighty works reveal thy wisdom and love. Thou hast formed us in thine own image, giving the whole world into our care, that in obedience unto thee, our Maker, we might rule and serve all thy creatures. When our disobedience took us far from thee, thou didst not abandon us to the power of death, but in thy mercy thou didst come to our help, that in seeking thee we might find thee. Again and again thou didst call us into covenant with thee, and through the prophets thou didst teach us to hope for salvation.

Thou didst so love the world, O Father, that in the fullness of time thou didst send thine only-begotten Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. That thy purpose might be fulfilled, he gave himself up unto death; and rising from the grave he destroyed death and made the whole creation new.

And that we might live no longer unto ourselves, but unto him who died for us and rose again, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, bringing to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by thee, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end: At supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks unto thee, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,

“TAKE, EAT:
THIS IS MY BODY WHICH IS GIVEN FOR YOU.
DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME.”

Likewise, after supper he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying,

“DRINK YE ALL OF THIS:
FOR THIS IS MY BLOOD OF THE NEW COVENANT,
WHICH IS SHED FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS.
DO THIS, AS OFT AS YE SHALL DRINK IT, IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME.”

And now, O Father, we celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ’s death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to thy right hand, awaiting his coming in glory, and offering unto thee, from the gifts which thou hast given us, this bread and this cup, we praise thee and we bless thee.

All

we praise Thee, we bless Thee,

we give thanks unto Thee,

and we pray to Thee: Lord, our God.

We beseech thee, O Lord, that in thy goodness and mercy thy Holy Spirit may descend upon us and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and revealing them as holy gifts for thy holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Grant that all who share this bread and this cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of thy Name.

Remember, O Lord, thy one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the Blood of thy Christ. Reveal her unity, guard her faith, and preserve her in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all the saints who have found favor with thee in ages past. We praise thee in union with them and give thee glory through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ all honor and glory be unto thee, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, world without end. AMEN.

The Prayer of Humble Access

Let us pray. We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Ecce Agnus Dei & Non sum dignus

✠. Behold the Lamb of God; behold him who taketh away the sins of the world. Happy are we who are called to his supper.

℟. Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof; but, speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

All persons are invited to the Lord's Table. All baptized Christians, regardless of tradition, are invited to receive the Blessed Sacrament. If you prefer not to receive, you may receive a blessing from the Priest by crossing your arms over your chest.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

¶ If you cannot receive the Blessed Sacrament physically, you are invited to receive Jesus spiritually by making an Act of Spiritual Communion. Please pray the following prayer.

My Jesus, I believe that thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love thee above all things, and I desire thee in my soul. Since I cannot now receive thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace thee, as though thou wert already there, and unite myself wholly to thee; permit not that I should ever be separated from thee. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Almighty and ever living God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost feed us in these holy mysteries with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Postcommunion Collect

Giver of all, who nourisheth us with thine Easter sacraments: fill us with the Spirit of love, and unite us in faith, that we may be witnesses to the resurrection and show thy glory to all the world, in the Name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

The Eastertide Benediction

May Almighty God, who hath redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism hath raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. Amen.

May God, who hath brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.
